

Sorenson Relay is wonderful. Their interpreters are so skilled and qualified to use their hands and minds to understand us all at our different levels of communications. Please do not try to change or reduce of any kinds of communications that will upset us all and cause the frustrations between us and the callers. Please do not do anything in your own point of view unless you are in our shoes.